

SAORISE VASE

SKU: BGW210

The Saorise vase takes its inspiration from forms encountered in the natural world. Borrowing from coral reefs, to forests, to natural rock outcroppings, our artisans have created vases in white matte porcelain that celebrate the beauty and the asymmetry of forms encountered in both land and sea. The Saorise Vase recalls a tree trunk in the forest with all the little growths and knobs that would naturally occur. In their originality, these pieces serve either as decorative objects, for example gracing a center table or a dining table, or as vases holding floral arrangements. Dimensions: Dia 7.5" x H 17"
